This notice applies to all of the records of your equipment and services we generate. Your personal doctor and other entities providing products or services to you may have different policies or notices regarding their use and disclosure of your medical information.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

You have the following rights regarding medical information we maintain about you:

D88007648 Rev C
Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect and copy medical information about you. Usually, this includes medical and billing records. If the medical information about you is maintained electronically, you have the right to inspect and copy such information in electronic form, in the format you request, if such information is readily producible in such form and format.

To inspect and copy medical information about you, you must submit your request in writing to Hoveround’s Compliance and Privacy Officer. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, or other supplies associated with your request.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. Another licensed health care professional chosen by us will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

Right to Amend. If you feel that medical information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for us.

To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing and submitted to Hoveround’s Compliance and Privacy Officer. In addition, you must provide a reason that supports your request. We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Is not part of the medical information kept by or for us;
- Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
- Is accurate and complete.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an “accounting of disclosures.” This accounting is a list of the disclosures we made of medical information about you, except disclosures made for treatment, payment, and Hoveround’s health care operations.

To request this list or accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to Hoveround’s Compliance and Privacy Officer. Your request must state a time period, which may not be longer than six years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (for example, on paper, electronically). The first list you request within a 12-month period will be free. For additional lists, we may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment, or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care, like a family member or friend. We are not required to agree to your request. However, we must agree to your request to restrict disclosure of your medical information to a health plan if the disclosure is for the purpose of carrying out payment or health care operations and is not otherwise required by law, and the applicable medical information pertains solely to a health care item or service for which you, or any person other than the health plan on your behalf, has paid us in full. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment.

To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing to Hoveround’s Compliance and Privacy Officer. In your request, you must tell us (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply, for example, disclosures to your spouse.

Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work or by mail.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

The following categories describe different ways that we are permitted to use and disclose medical information as a health care provider, although some of these categories may not apply to our business and we may not actually use or disclose your medical information for such purposes. For each category of uses or disclosures, we will explain what we mean and try to give some examples. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways we are permitted or required to use and disclose information will fall within one of the categories.

- For Treatment. We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment, products, or services. We may disclose medical information about you to Doctors, Nurses, Occupational Therapist, Physical Therapist, or any other health care professional who are involved in your care. We also may disclose medical information about you to people who may be involved in your medical care after you have received our products and services, such as family members, clergy or others we use to provide services that are part of your care.

- For Payment. We may use and disclose medical information about you so that the treatment and services we provide you may be billed to and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company, or a third party. For example, we may need to give your health plan information about products and services we provided to you so your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the products and services. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment you are going to receive to obtain prior approval or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment.

- For Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose medical information about you for our health care operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to run our company and make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. For example, we may use medical information to review our services and to evaluate the performance of our staff in providing equipment for you. We may also combine medical information about many clients to decide what additional services we should offer, what services are not needed, and whether certain new products are effective. We may also disclose information to Doctors, Nurses, Occupational Therapist, or Physical Therapist, or any other health care professional for review and learning purposes. We may remove information that identifies you from this set of medical information so others may use it to study health care and health care delivery without learning who the specific patients are.

- Appointment Reminders. We may use and disclose medical information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for evaluation or services.

- Treatment Alternatives. We may use and disclose medical information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternative equipment that may be of interest to you.

- Health-Related Benefits and Services. We may use and disclose medical information to tell you about health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

- Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. We may release medical information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care. We may also give information to someone who helps pay for your care. We may also tell your family or friends your location and condition and that you are receiving products and services from us. In addition, we may disclose medical information about you to any entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status and location.

- As Required By Law. We will disclose medical information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law.
To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use and disclose medical information about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure, however, would only be to someone able to help prevent the threat.

Marketing. We may from time to time send you information about products or services that Hoveround offers.

Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose medical information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities include, for example, audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

Lawsuits and Disputes. If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose medical information about you in response to a court or administrative order.
